Synodical Announces "Johnston" As Name for Their Building

Honor Bestowed Upon Barium
Springs Superintendent and His Wife

ALL NOW NAMED

Stultz, Cannon and Wallace Are Names of Other New Buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. B. Johnston, of Barium Springs, were distinctly, notably and appropriately honored in Charlotte on October 22nd, when it was announced that the fourth unit of a quadrangle of cottages constructed at Barium Springs this year had been named the "Johnston" building in recognition of their worth and service to Presbyterian Orphans' Home. This is the building that was constructed with funds raised by the Presbyterian ladies in the Synod of North Carolina.

The structure had been unnamed until the executive board of the North Carolina Synodical, in annual session at Charlotte on October 21-23, met in that city on Tuesday and selected the name Johnston by which the building will be known. The names of the other cottages previously announced are Cannon, Stultz and Wallace.

Public revelation of this pleasing decision to thousands of people followed the report of Mrs. C. E. Raynal, of Statesville who is completing four years of work as secretary of orphanage endeavor in the Synodical. When she finished her report she read a letter of appreciation to the ladies from the boys who occupy the Johnston Cottage and to which the name of every occupant had been signed. She then presented Miss Louise Clanton, under whose regime as president, the effort to raise $10,000.00 was launched and during whose tenure of office considerably more than that sum was raised.

Miss Clanton then revealed that the name Johnston had been chosen, and in the same connection she officially presented the cottage to the Presbyterian Orphans' Home. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston were both present and Mr. Johnston acknowledged the gratefulness of the Home for the building and spoke feelingly of the honor that had been bestowed upon him and Mrs. Johnston.

The word "Johnston" has already been lettered over the transom of the door to that building, the names of the others already being on the cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston have been at Barium Springs since July of 1922—almost two decades—and the naming of this building for them is an appreciation on their devotion to the children of Barium Springs and of their contribution to the life of the Home here.

Sums Have Been Contributed for Two Windows in the Church at Barium Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Clark, of Elizabethtown, were among the nine different parties wanting to furnish the last bedroom in the new cottages constructed at Barium Springs, but since that room had already been assigned they are allowing their $100.00 check to be used to furnish a stained-glass window with emblems in Little Joe's Church.

The September issue revealed that Miss Beulah Johnston, of Mooresville, was giving a $100.00 sum in memory of her sister, Miss Flossie Allison Johnston, for a similar window. This check has

Ralph S. Robinson of Gastonia, Announced as Donor In September

Gift Honors His Aunt and His Late Uncle, Mr. and Mrs.
David Montgomery Jones

REVEALED AT SYNOD

Sum Will Be Used As First Contribution for Small Cottages.

In connection with the annual report of the Board of Regents of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home to the Synod of North Carolina on the afternoon of September 24th, Dr. J. R. McGregor of Burlington, board president, announced a gift of $10,000 by Ralph S. Robinson of Gastonia "for the purpose of erecting units of cottages for a children's village, which is to be similar to the new cottages recently erected, but which will be smaller but less expensive cottages to be used by the smaller children."

Dr. McGregor also revealed that Mr. Robinson, who wrote to Barium Springs in the middle of September and said that he wanted to give $10,000 for this purpose, was making the gift in memory of his uncle, the late David Montgomery Jones of Gastonia, and in honor of his aunt, Mrs. David Montgomery Jones, who is now living in Gastonia.

It was pointed out to the Synod that the construction of this village would be done as soon as possible depending upon available funds for this project. It was stated that the cottage occupied by the smaller boys and girls could be utilized for needed purposes on the campus.

Announcement of this additional gift to the Home here has been made in the semi-centennial year which has already seen the construction of a quadrangle of cottages and a printing office and shoe shop building.

The Synod stood in appreciation to the ladies of the North Carolina synodical and to the individuals who made these possible. Rev. John A. Redhead, pastor of the Charlotte Second Presbyterian Church, led the body in a prayer of thanksgiving for the Home during the past half-century.

The only donor of any of the five buildings to Barium Springs who could be present at Synod was Mr. Franklin Avery Sherrill, who represented the Statesville First Church as an elder. Mr. Sherrill was on the rostrum during this presentation and at its conclusion remarked to Synod that he thanked God that He had given him possessions to make possible his $6,000.00 gift to Barium, and that he hoped others would make similar contributions. This was Mr. Sherrill's last public appearance, for he died on Saturday, October 18th, following an illness of three weeks.

Notice To Alumni

Alumni of Barium Springs will have their second Home-Coming of 1941 on Friday, November 21st - the day after Thanksgiving. Since this will be a holiday week-end following Thanksgiving Day a much larger-than-usual attendance is expected, for some will be able to be away from home over the extended period. Former boys and girls are urged to come early and stay late. There will be a short meeting of the Association after lunch at 12 o'clock.

News from Some of the Cottages at Barium

BABY COTTAGE.

Here it is October and time to write to you again.

It seems only last week that we wrote to you, but with all the visitors and amusements we have had, the time has certainly flown.

In the last two months we've had three little new boys, Donnie and Jimmie Campbell, and Donald Dean to come and live with us. We hope they feel at home here.

As you know Synod accepted our invitation and we hope they had a delightful stay with us here at Barium.

Thanks to Mr. Sams for inviting us to see "Golden Hoofs", with Jane Withers and Charles (Buddy) Rogers. We certainly did enjoy it.

Mrs. Southerland, our matron, has recently had a visit from one of her friends, Mrs. Paxton Davis from Winston-Salem. I know she enjoyed it very much.

John Collins had a visit from his mother, grandmother and aunt. I know he enjoyed seeing them very much.

Yesterday was children's day at the fair so the youth of Barium was invited. We wish to thank Mr. Neel and everyone who made it possible for us to go, because we certainly enjoyed ourselves.

We will be signing off for this month, but be looking for us next month in "The Barium Messenger".

—The Baby Cottage Boys.

SYNOD'S.

Since we last wrote you we have had visits from our friends and preachers when the Synod met here. We enjoyed having them.

Mr. Luke showed us some moving pictures of the children in his seven churches in the mountains. These were of Daily Vacation Bible schools. The pictures were colored and we enjoyed them so much.

Mr. Sams invited us to the picture show to see Jane Withers play in "Golden Hoof." We want to thank him.

We played football against Mills Home at Thomasville and won, 13-0.

That's all for this time.

—The Wiggles.

INFIRMARY.

Hello Friends,

We have been having football games, which everyone have been enjoying very much. We have played Morganton, Charlotte, Mills Home, Spencer and Children's Home. We won all of them, except Charlotte, which we tied. We are very proud of the record.

We surely did enjoy having Synod with us for a few days and we are hoping they will be with us again before long.

We want to thank the Maggie Rose Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church of Fayetteville for the beautiful pictures they sent us for the Infirmary. They will add cheer for the children.

We have three new children who have come to live with us. They are Shirley, Linda and Patty Clare Inman. We hope we can make them feel at home.

Elaine Faircloth, one of our girls, has moved to the Woman's Building but we are glad to have Mae Allen Barrett in her place. We hope she will like to live with us.

We want to thank Mr. Sams for inviting us to see "Golden Hoofs". We enjoyed it lots.

We are glad to have Dr. Martin, the dentist, this week and for the coming weeks. We are all very glad to have our teeth inspected and filled when needed.

We want to thank Mr. Neel for inviting us to the fair. We all enjoyed it very much and had a grand time.

We appreciate Mr. Johnston arranging it so we can go to Davidson to see the football games they play at home.

—Beulah Baldwin.

—Martha Price.

HOWARD.

Hello Folks,

This is Howard Cottage bringing you the news of the month. We hope you will enjoy reading this.

We were glad to hear that Synod enjoyed themselves. We certainly did enjoy having them with us.

We sure did enjoy the fair. And the six big tickets.

We also enjoyed the free shows we have been going to see.

The girls who get the show tickets were Ida Lee McBride, Hazel Walker, Vivian Jacumin, Joyce Katen had a chance to have one, but didn't take it because she doesn't like to go to the show.

We are very glad to have the new children come to stay with us. Hope they will like it up here.

We have been stringing lots of beans every day.

By the way, we had October's birthday table today and everybody's birthday that is in October got to go to it. The girls at Howard are Virginia Presnell, Gwendolyn Landrum and Grace Morgan and Miss Burgess, our matron.

Well folks that's all. Bye, bye now and we will be seeing you.

—The Beansringers.

Every Presbyterian in North Carolina, by examining the Thanksgiving Offering tabulations that begin on page three and conclude on page four, can know what his or her church contributed in the Thanksgiving seasons of 1939, 1940, the best offering that has been made in 16 years and the year in which that peak sum was contributed. Using all of this makes the October issue of The Messenger statistical in nature, but on the basis of past experience, it is believed that it is worthwhile to record these annually. If a church is not listed it means that Thanksgiving responses have not been received for either 1939 or 1940.

Seventy-four churches or mission points had the unusual distinction in 1940 of scaling new Thanksgiving heights in their liberality. Over one-half of the 530 churches listed can boast of Thanksgiving peaks that were set since 1934, for these number 269. However, the year of 1925 - as far back as the records were examined - has the greatest number of peaks - 83 - for any one year.
